AGO Bookmark File

- ❖ A bookmark is a cross-reference to a file located in the Adjutant General's records held at the National Archives.
- ❖ Bookmarks are frequently recorded on the front jacket of a soldier's CMSR, on the inside of the jacket, on an individual card in the CMSR, on a page in a private law, a document from another bookmark file, or a page in the pension.
- ❖ What might I find? A medal of honor awardee, a court-martial, testimony by your soldier at another soldier's court-martial, attempts to correct official military records, disputes over rank, investigation into a desertion or other event during the war, an audit of a pension, etc.
- ❖ There is no way to know, in advance, what a bookmark file will reveal!

Terms: You will receive color digital images of records retrieved and scanned. Please allow 6 weeks for delivery; wait time could be less based upon trip dates. Every effort will be made to adhere to planned trip dates; weather or NARA closures could adversely impact delivery times. Please verify the information provided above for accuracy. We will pull and scan the file identified and are not liable if it is not "your" family member. Files identified by the NARA findings aids should be available. In the rare event the requested file is empty or missing we are not liable; you are paying for our time to retrieve the requested records.
